The joint resolution on the subject of the Washington and Alexandria railroad was then

Washington and Alexandria ratiroad was then taken up.

Mr. Callan offered a resolution that the committee heretofore appointed on this subject he requested to present a full report of all the particulars of this whole subject, including the history, the rights, responsibilities, and the judicial proceedings in the case of this road, and report to this Board.

Mc Shepherd said that the history of this road was bad enough; he did not want to know any more about it. He was ready to vote on it. Mr. Given said that at the informal meeting of the two beards be had been convinced of the duty of passing this resolution. He then offered the following amendment:

Provided, That the said Hays shall deposit within the space of ten days after the passage of this act, the sum of 16,000, subject to the order of the Mayor, as a forfesture to this corporation to ensure his faithful fulfilment of this contract.

of the Mayor, as a fortesture to this corporation to ensure his faithful failliment of this contract.

Mr. Morgan said this was a plain proposition to buy this road. It is for us to say whether we will accept the proposition or not.

Mr. Calian said he wanted all the reasons for this sale spread on the journal of the board, so that when any of his constituents asked him the reason for his vote, he could point to the facts as there recorded.

Mr. Wilson thought this matter had been pretty thoroughly ventilated at the informal meeting, and he was ready to vote on it now.

Mr. Mulloy did not approve of secret meetings of these councils. He wanted the business of his constituents transacted in a manner that they can quderStand.

The question was then taken on the resolution of Mr. Calian, and it was lost—yeas 9, nays

Mr. Morgan moved to reconsider the vote last taken, pending which,
Mr. Edmonaton moved an adjournment. Carried.

Churches Closed by the Provoit Marsha Churches Closed by the Prevest Mavshus. Two of the Episcopal Churches of this city, the Church of the Ascansion, Bev. Dr. Pinkney, and Christ Church, Bav. Mr. Morsell, were closed last Bueday, by order of the Provest Marshal. This step, we understand, grew out of the refusal of these two reverend gandsmen to read a apecial prayer which the Bishop of the Diocese not long since prescribed for the churches of this city to be read as a part of the Banday services of the church, and of disorderly or riotous proceedings apprehended in consequence of that refusal. The form of the prayer has been published in our columns. It is understood that the Provest Marshal had in formed the ciergymen who refused to read the prayer that their churches would have to be closed if any disturbance was threatned. Accordingly, on Sunday a military guard was placed at the doors of the Church of the Ascension and Christ Church, but the pastor of the Trinity Church officiated as usual, notwithstanding the fact that a majority of the vestry have adopted the following presmble and resolutions:

We the wardens and vosity of Trinity Church, standing the fact that a majority of the vestry have adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

We, the wardens and vestry of Trinity Church, Washington, believing that civil government is an ordination of God, and that the attempt by a band of trailors to overturn and destroy the Government of the United States, without any declaration of grievances, is an act of unparalleled wickedness, and that it is the duty of all loyal citizens of the Republic to manifest their gratitude to Almighty God for the victories achieved by the armies of the Union, do hereby Resolve. That the omission on the part of our temporary Rector, Roy. E. W. Syle, to read with the services of the sanctuary the prayer of thenkegiving for the victories youthasked to the Federal armies, and also for the preservation of the national capital from the terrors of blockade and slege, recently prescribed by the Bishop of the diccess, is offensive to the loyal feelings of the wardens and vestry of Trinity church, and, if allowed to pass unrebuked, the said omission is justly calculated to excite suspicions as to their loyalty as citizens of the congregation worshipping in said church, whilst it would also show that they are wanting in a proper respect for ecclesiastical authority.

Hesolved, That the highest and best interests of Trinity church require that the connexion with it of Rev. E. W. Syle should be immediately severed.

with it of Rev. E. W. Syle should be immediately severed.

By order of the Vestry:

L. J. Andrason, Register.

Mr. Syle, it is said, denies the authority of the vestry to take such action in this matter, and has given notice of his intention to subsit the matter to the membership. Meanwhile, great interest is manifested in the result of the affair, not only in the several churches interested that a large proportion of the members of these churchos ympathize with their pastors, while those who really feel thankful for Union victories and the deliverance of our city from blockade and siege, do not desire to have the unjust suspicion of disloyally resiling upon them by constenancing the refusal of compliance in worthy Bishop Whitingham.

Never, in the whole course of our brief existence, have we seen so much drunkenness in one week as it has been our misfortune to see in the week just closed. Go where you will, turn in whichever direction you may, and you will be compelled to see one or more drunken men, before you have wasked the length of a square. How shall this state of things be prevented? We perceive that the provost guard has taken care of a number of the keapers of the lowest and viest of the grey shops. That is very good as far as it goes. But why not stop the officer from drinking as well as the private? Smash the bottles and barrels, and arrest the keepers of the "big establishments," and the work will have been rightly initiated. Do away with the demoralizing example which the officers present, and the work of reformation in the soldiery is more than half accomplished. What a fine and noble specimen of humanity is a temperate, sober, healthy-looking soldier? And how completely the reverse is a degraded set in the uniform of an American officer:

Amother Murder Trial.

GRINIAL COURT.—Yesterday morning the trial of Thomas Norris, chargod with Killing his wife Margaret, was commenced.

It will be recollected that on or about the 11th day of October last, she was found dead at her residence on the island, her head and face being shockingly out and bruised. Mr. Morris appeared as ocuosel for the prisoner. The jurymen selected to try the case are all from the regular panel, as follows:

The evidence was similar to that before the coroner's inquest and the examining magistrate.

Amother Death by Burning.

A man by the name of Cusick went into an ambulance on Nineteenth street, west, last Saturday night, in quier to get some rest, and by some accident so the straw on f.6. When the watchman discovered the fire, the top the watchman discovered the fire, the top the ambulance was nearly burned of, and the sick was found on the floor herribly burned and speechless, and died soon afterwards. He was a sober man, and is said to have a family and owned some property in Baltimore.

Meeting of Robels in Washington.

Within a few days past, for some reason not yet discovered, the rebel sympathizers in the most particular to washington have been unusually bold. Meetings have been held, and crowds of Baltimore robels, whose visit to Washington have been very rare of late, participate in them.
